Geriatrics

Index to volume 26

January 1971—December 1971

SUBJECT INDEX

Aging and aged aging and ethnicity in healthy elderly women (Richek et al.) 146 (May)

ANTICOAGULANT SYMPOSIUM, PART 1
Effect on mortality of discontinuing long-term anticoagulant therapy after myocardial infarction (Suzman) 106 (July)
Myth of anticoagulant prophylaxis in myocardial infarction (Russek) 116 (July)

ANTICOAGULANT SYMPOSIUM, PART 2
Long-term anticoagulant therapy for coronary artery disease (Korsan-Bengtsen) 92 (Aug.)
Recent advances in the control of anticoagulant therapy (Owren) 74 (Aug.)

ARRHYTHMIA SYMPOSIUM, PART 2
Epicardial electrogram in the diagnosis of cardiac arrhythmias following cardiac surgery (Waldo et al.) 108 (Jan.)
Experimental and clinical effects of bretylium tosylate on ventricular fibrillation, arrhythmias, and heart block (Bacaner) 132 (Jan.)
Hemodynamic consequences of atrial fibrillation (Edmands & Greenspan) 99 (Jan.)
Role of the endocardial electrogram in the analysis of cardiac arrhythmias (Samet et al.) 113 (Jan.)

Atrioventricular conduction block in accessory pathways (Cardenas et al.) 119 (Feb.)
Beta-blocking agents in the management of cardiac arrhythmias (Reynolds) 150 (Feb.)
Computers in the identification of cardiac arrhythmias (Pordy) 162 (Feb.)
Current status of synchronized and unsynchronized precordial electric shock (Kimball) 111 (Feb.)
Hemiblock and cardiac arrhythmias (Sepúlveda et al.) 124 (Feb.)
U waves in cardiac arrhythmias (Scherf & Bornemann) 140 (Feb.)

Arteries
coronary disease, long-term anticoagulant therapy (Korsan-Bengtsen) 92 (Aug.)

Arteriosclerosis cerebral, long-term management of symptoms (Stern) 98 (July)

Atherosclerosis cerebral, changes in nervous system (Mintz & Mankovsky) 134 (Sept.)
clinical manifestations, and serum cholesterol levels in aged (Schadel et al.) 172 (May)

B

Barbiturates
overdose, therapy (Okun) 113 (Sept.)

Blood
polycythemia and chronic lung disease (Reichenberg) 95 (Oct.)

Bones
trophoneuropathic bone changes versus osteomyelitis in diabetes mellitus (Steinberg) 111 (Mar.)

Breast cancer, in elderly women (Schottenfeld & Robbins) 121 (Mar.)

C

Cancer
breast, in elderly women (Schottenfeld & Robbins) 121 (Mar.)
esophagus, diagnosis and treatment (Ansari) 98 (May) indications for regional chemotherapy (Westbury & Newton) 122 (Nov.)
lung, importance of compulsory mass X-rays for early diagnosis (Riska) 172 (Feb.)
lung, sputum cytology screening (Delarue et al.) 130 (Aug.)

Cardiopulmonary disease carotid body in (Heath & Edwards) 110 (Dec.)
resuscitation program in community hospital (Coskey) 66 (Dec.)

CEDARS-SINAI SYMPOSIUM, PART 1
Introduction (Briggs) 73 (Sept.)
Acute glomerulonephritis in the elderly (Arieff et al.) 74 (Sept.)
Effect of cardiogenic shock on the superior mesenteric circulation (Vyden & Corday) 85 (Sept.)
L-Dopa: Its effect on the cardiovascular system (Carrasco et al.) 100 (Sept.)
New concepts in temporary circulatory assist for treatment of cardiogenic shock (Lang et al.) 90 (Sept.)
Therapy of barbiturate overdose (Okun) 113 (Sept.)

CEDARS-SINAI SYMPOSIUM, PART 2
Antiarrhythmic properties of carbamazepine (Corday et al.) 78 (Oct.)
Cardiac arrhythmias and their termination: Their effect on systemic hemodynamics and the coronary superior mesenteric and renal circulations (Serruya et al.) 82 (Oct.)
Compensatory patterns of acid-base disorders (Makoff) 107 (Oct.)
Polycythemia and chronic lung disease (Reichenberg) 95 (Oct.)
Prognostic indicators in acute myocardial infarction (McHugh & Swan) 72 (Oct.)
Pulmonary artery catheterization: A new technique in treatment of acute myocardial infarction (Forrester et al.) 65 (Oct.)

Cerebrovascular disorders occlusive vascular disease in nonhemorrhagic stroke patients: clinical study of 145 patients (Schanfield et al.) 106 (Mar.)
peripheral surgery after stroke, orthopedic-rehabilitative effort (Lusskin et al.) 65 (Nov.)

Chest
X-rays, benign vascular shadows (Thomas) 134 (Mar.)

Cholesterol
serum levels and atherosclerosis, clinical manifestations (Schadel et al.) 172 (May)

CLINIFOTO
January: Small bowel infarction from a tumor embolus 94
February: Skin depigmentation from hospital use of phenols 106
March: The consequences of frostbite 82
April: Hidden damage from electrical injury 84
May: Shock lung: a distinct entity 84
June: Ischemia of the hand from using palm as hammer 76
July: Nerve and muscle changes in diabetic neuropathy 60
September: Eye changes in hyperlipoproteinemia 68
October: Selective angiography in pulmonary embolism 60
November: Plastic faces for the faceless 54
December: Irradiation for complicated peptic ulcer 46

Colon
ileostomy and colostomy, emotional response in patients over age 50 (Dlin & Perlman) 113 (June)

Computers
in identification of cardiac arrhythmias (Pordy) 162 (Feb.)

Deafness
rehabilitation of the aged (Ronis et al.) 57 (Dec.)

Death
decision-making in the death process of the ill aged (Miller) 105 (May)

Dentistry
oral cavity in geriatrics (Kaplan) 96 (Dec.)

Diabetes
mellitus, errors inherent in abbreviated screening procedures (Waxler et al.) 98 (Nov.)
mellitus, treatment with glibenclamide in maturity-onset (Persson & Madsen) 182 (May) mellitus, trophoneuropathic bone changes versus osteomyelitis (Steinberg) 111 (Mar.)

Diverticulitis
in advanced age (Dobrowolski) 104 (Dec.)

Drugs
anticoagulants, long-term therapy, low incidence of coronary thrombosis (Eliot & Streiff) 152 (Jan.)
beta-blocking agents in management of cardiac arrhythmias (Reynolds) 150 (Feb.)
bretylium tosylate, experimental and clinical effects on ventricular fibrillation, arrhythmias, and heart block (Bacaner) 132 (Jan.)
carbamazepine, antiarrhythmic properties (Corday et al.) 78 (Oct.)
glibenclamide, in maturity-onset diabetes mellitus (Persson & Madsen) 182 (May) oxandrolone, anabolic action and side effects in 34 mental patients (Sansoy et al.) 139 (Apr.)
psychopharmacological, use in aged (Webb) 95 (June) quinidine, in acute myocardial infarction (Erikssen & Muller) 160 (Jan.)

EDITORIALS by Alvarez, Walter C.:
January: A closer look at carcinoid tumors; Measuring the brain's blood supply 85
February: Esophageal moniliasis: the disease spectrum; Dean Swift's doggerel about his own death; Concurrence of myasthenia gravis and rheumatoid arthritis 101
March: Hans Selye's new book; Chemotherapies for the aging; Trends in mortality of nonwhites; Difficulties in operating on the aged 79
April: The unforgettable Jacques Romano; A normal diet and length of life; Tuberculosis often a geriatric disease; Poverty can be a cause of death 81
May: Fighting osteoporosis; Wilden Penfield's second career; A gynecologic survey of elderly women; Physicist in the X-ray department 81
June: The elderly jaywalker; Powerful rays to fight cancer; Study of suicide among physicians; One trouble of aging 73
July: The old man who wanted to die; Treatment for geriatric mental patients 57
August: How well can centenarians see and hear?; Plastic surgery for aging women 53
September: Exercise and longevity; Political potency of the elderly 65
October: Treating aging people with hormones 57
November: Things we can learn from experiences in a nursing home 53
December: Studies of anti-senility drugs; Drug for pain relief; Results of screening tests 45

EMOTIONAL PROBLEMS OF AGING SYMPOSIUM, PART 1
Introduction (Briggs) 81 (June)
Change of life in the woman (Winn & Daly) 105 (June) Emotional problems in relation to aging and old age (Kern) 83 (June)
Emotional response to ileostomy and colostomy in patients over the age of 50 (Dlin & Perlman) 113 (June)
Use of psychopharmacological drugs in the aged (Webb) 95 (June)

Electroencephalograms
in aging of nervous system (Mankovsky & Belonog) 100 (Aug.)

Embolism
fat, in elderly patients (Dines et al.) 60 (Dec.)

Emotional problems emotional aspects of chest diseases (Maher-Loughnan) 120 (June)

EMOTIONAL PROBLEMS OF AGING SYMPOSIUM, PART 2
Creative retirement (Sukov) 82 (July)
Man's determination of his time of illness or death (Fischer & Dlin) 89 (July)
Premature death and self-injurious behavior in old age (Kastenbaum & Mishara) 70 (July)
Treatment of the depressed and suicidal geriatric patient (Wolff) 65 (July)

Esophagus
cancer, diagnosis and treatment (Ansari) 98 (May) medical versus surgical management of espohageal perforation (Youngs & Nicoloff) 100 (Mar.)

Exercise
intensity threshold for improvement of cardiovascular-respiratory function in older men (deVries) 94 (Apr.)
prescription, for older men from telemetered exercise heart rate data (deVries) 102 (Apr.)
role in patients with coronary disease (Blackburn) 89 (Apr.)

Fractures
hand radioactivity after intravenous injection of ^{47}Ca.: effect of age and femoral neck fracture (Arman & Reizenstein) 150 (Mar.)
hip, fresh intracapsular, Massie nail fixation contrasted with Austin-Moore replacement (Greer & Niemann) 86 (Nov.)

G

Gallbladder
cholecystostomy in geriatric surgery (Chaitin) 57 (Aug.)

GERISCOPE
January: Symposium cites geriatric dilemma in health care 25
February: British objective for aged stresses care in community 29
March: Mobile units found to reduce coronary mortality rates 24
April: Poverty often way of life for aged, major survey shows 25
May: Most of the healthy aged do not fear death, study shows 26
June: New approaches brighten prospects in hip surgery 24
July: British forecast many medical gains for 1980s, 1990s 26
September: Research unveils new causes of changes with age 24
November: Genetic studies show differences in breast cancer 22

GOVERNMENT AND GERIATRICS
January: U.S. tests methods to achieve better nutrition for aged 18
February: Less-confusing income tax forms sought for aged 16
March: U.S. seeks to ease crisis of mobility hampering aged 18
April: Nixon health plan would make major changes for aged 18
May: Controversy marks planning for White House Conference 18
June: Heated debate due on Medicare peer review issue 18
July: U.S. white paper puts major stress on prepaid care 20
August: Nixon may spur action on upgrading of nursing homes 18

September: Sen. Percy creates comprehensive plan for aid to elderly 18

October: Flemming assumes key role in Nixon policies on aged 16

November: New license rule for nursing home administrators 16

December: U.S. offers states aid in improving nursing homes 14

hemiblock and cardiac arrhythmias (Sepúlveda et al.) 124 (Feb.)

hemodynamic consequences of atrial fibrillation (Edmands & Greenspan) 99 (Jan.)

high-resolution electrocardiography (Special Communication, Krohn) 88 (Jan.)

low incidence of coronary thrombosis: poor target for long-term anticoagulants (Eliot & Streiff) 152 (Jan.)

mitral stenosis in elderly (Limas) 75 (Nov.)

prescription of exercise for older men from telemetered exercise heart rate data (deVries) 102 (Apr.)

pulmonary artery catheterization in acute myocardial infarction (Forrester et al.) 65 (Oct.)

quinidine in acute myocardial infarction (Erikssen & Muller) 160 (Jan.)

role of endocardial electrogram in analysis of cardiac arrhythmias (Samet et al.) 113 (Jan.)

role of exercise in patients with coronary disease (Blackburn) 89 (Apr.)

surgery, my life, 1923-1969 (Beck) 84 (Feb.)

transvenous pacing, clinical experience with permanent units in elderly patients (part 2) (Timmis et al.) 89 (Dec.)

U waves in cardiac arrhythmias (Scherf & Bornemann) 140 (Feb.)

fractures, fresh intracapsular, Massie nail fixation contrasted with Austin-Moore replacement (Greer & Niemann) 86 (Nov.)

History

of geriatrics (Historical Communication, Dobrowolski) 68 (Apr.)

I

Infarction, myocardial

acute, prognostic indicators (McHugh & Swan) 72 (Oct.)

effect on mortality of discontinuing long-term anticoagulant therapy after (Suzman) 106 (July) in elderly surgical patient (Saunders et al.) 122 (Sept.)

myth of anticoagulant prophylaxis (Russek) 116 (July) pulmonary artery catheterization (Forrester et al.) 65 (Oct.)

IN RETROSPECT, edited by Hurwitz, Milton M.:

January: The obscure disease which follows a misleading path 54

February: The inapparent cause of apparent congestive failure 65

March: When incomplete examinations steer the doctor astray 56

April: Cerebral disease that is all in the doctor's cerebrum 50

May: Conservative therapy can be radically wrong 54

June: When cancer isn't cancer and noncancer is 53

July: The obscure clues which may mean a myocardial infarct 47

August: The case of the confusing complication 40

September: When a negative X-ray gives no positive answer 48

October: Neurologic disease which gives no neurologic clues 32

November: The problems of the idiopathic cardiomyopathy 38

December: Diverticulitis that diverges from its usual course 35

Insulin

content and activity in blood in sensitivity of tissues to it during aging (Frolkis et al.) 118 (Aug.)

K

Kidney

acute glomerulonephritis (Arieff et al.) 74 (Sept.)

Larynx

management of older laryngectomee (King et al.) 112 (Apr.)

effect on cardiovascular system (Carrasco et al.) 100 (Sept.)

treatment of parkinsonism (Reveno et al.) 61 (Aug.)

Liver

proven value of scanning (Poe & Bennett) 123 (Apr.)

Lung

chronic disease and polycythemia (Reichenberg) 95 (Oct.)

connective tissue in chronic obstructive airways disease (Smith) 146 (Apr.)

M

Medical care

consecutive psychogeriatric admissions to psychiatric and geriatric hospitals (Burvill) 156 (May) in a facility for healthy aged (Selickman) 107 (Nov.)

posthospital care of the patient past 65 (Freeman) 121 (May)

Menstruation

climacteric (Winn & Daly) 105 (June)

Metabolism

insulin, content and activity in blood and sensitivity of tissues during aging (Frolkis et al.) 118 (Aug.)

N

Nervous system

aging, electroencephalographic aspect (Mankovsky & Belonog) 100 (Aug.)

Nutrition

in disease and stress (Balsley et al.) 87 (Mar.)

Pancreatitis

acute, management by applied physiology (Elmslie & Marshall) 122 (Oct.)

Parkinson's disease

L-dopa treatment (Reveno et al.) 61 (Aug.)

Prostate gland silent prostatism (Finestone & Rosenthal) 89 (May)

Psychoneuroses

consecutive psychogeriatric admissions to psychiatric and geriatric hospitals (Burvill) 156 (May)

Radioisotopes

^{47}Ca., hand radioactivity after intravenous injection, effect of age and femoral neck fracture (Arman & Reizenstein) 150 proven value of liver scanning (Poe & Bennett) 123 (Apr.)

Rehabilitation

management of older laryngectomee (King et al.) 112 (Apr.)

of the aged deaf (Ronis et al.) 57 (Dec.)

staffing conference in an extended care facility (Wing & Sarley) 144 (Mar.)

stigma of stroke, effects on performance during and after rehabilitation (Hyman) 132 (May)

Resuscitation, cardiopulmonary program in a community hospital; five-year experience (Coskey) 66 (Dec.)

Retirement

creative (Sukov) 82 (July)

Roentgen examination benign vascular shadows in chest X-rays (Thomas) 134 (Mar.)
importance of compulsory mass X-rays for early diagnosis of lung cancer (Riska) 172 (Feb.)

Shock
cardiogenic, effect on superior mesenteric circulation (Vyden & Corday) 85 (Sept.)
cardiogenic, new concepts in temporary circulatory assist (Lang et al.) 90 (Sept.)
Skin
aging, dermatologic surgery (Epstein) 94 (Mar.)
Stroke stigma, effects on performance during and after rehabilitation (Hyman) 132 (May) Stroke: See cerebrovascular disorders Surgical procedures cholecystostomy (Chaitin) 57 (Aug.)
dermatologic, in aging skin (Epstein) 94 (Mar.)

Tests
sputum cytology screening for lung cancer (Delarue et al.) 130 (Aug.)
Tubercle bacilli
in elderly people (Myers) 77 (Dec.)

V

Vascular disease
peripheral, atraumatic evaluation (Lichti et al.) 80 (Nov.)
VIEWPOINT
January: Hospitals must restructure to meet public needs (Mark Berke) 47
February: Surgeon General foresees gains in aged health care (Jesse L. Steinfeld) 57
March: Prometheus Project would plan future of man and his world (Gerald Feinberg) 45
April: Free care concept may overload U.S. health services (Sidney R. Garfield) 41
May: Nosocomial disease may become threat to the community (Henry D. Isenberg) 45
June: How the elderly become second-rate medical citizens (Morton Ward) 39
July: Heart Institute to step up efforts at prevention (Theodore Cooper) 39
August: Patient education vital, but more research needed (Scott K. Simonds) 29
September: Public has no true spokesman for all health needs (James R. Kimmey) 39
October: Inefficiency called main cause of poor medical care (Hiram B. Curry) 23
November: Social Security chief looks at Medicare future (Robert M. Ball) 35
December: Emeritus "U" planned to enrich retirement years (Jeffery J. Smith) 25
